Red Arrow Diner Names Amanda Wihby as Co-Owner

Manchester, NH – Red Arrow Diner is proud to announce its Chief Operations Officer, Amanda Wihby, is now also a co-owner of the company. The partnership became official on January 1, 2020.

Ms. Wihby joined the Red Arrow Diner in 2010 as a part-time administrative assistant. She worked her way up through the corporation and gained valuable experience working directly with Carol and George Lawrence, the company's daughter-and-father ownership team, on a daily basis. She had a large role in the opening of three brand new locations in Londonderry, Concord and soon-to-be-opened Nashua. In her role as Chief Operations Officer, Ms. Wihby works closely with and mentors all general managers to assure company policies and procedures are being met and manages the company's human resources, payroll and marketing components. Due to her hard work and dedication, she has managed to increase business and profitability in all of the company's current location. In 2017, Ms. Wihby was honored as the Stars of the Industry Restaurant Employee of the Year by the New Hampshire Lodging & Restaurant Association.

“I am thrilled to welcome Amanda Wihby as a Red Arrow Diner partner,” said Carol Lawrence, Owner & President at Red Arrow Diner. “It has been a pleasure to work closely with Amanda since day one and watch her achieve significant success and growth in our company. She is incredibly dedicated, driven and innovative and we know having her as part of our ownership team will have a long-lasting and positive impact on our brand and therefore our wonderful employees and customers.”
