

Red Arrow Diner in Manchester celebrates 100th anniversary

Oct 15, 2022

MANCHESTER, N.H. — Manchester's legendary Red Arrow Diner is celebrating 100 years in business.

The Red Arrow has been serving Granite Staters since 1922 and has welcomed a number of out-of-town stars and politicians over the years. To celebrate, the diner held a block party-style event Saturday afternoon.

“The diner in any community is the focal point of any community. And you can come in and be sitting next to whoever, you know, it could be a doctor or a city worker, or even a homeless person,” said Carol Lawrence, president of Red Arrow Diner. “There’s just all walks of life that come in the diner.”

Guests could buy tickets to sample some of the Red Arrow's famous cuisine.

All proceeds went to Waypoint New Hampshire, a nonprofit child and family services organization.
